

ANNA KALITA

Growing up in Russia, Anna always had a passion for makeup artistry. As a little girl she would draw makeup onto the pictures of models in fashion magazines to create her own unique looks. As she grew older she took up photography as a hobby, and found herself doing makeup on her friends during their impromptu photo shoots. This would be the defining moment for Anna, which would inspire her journey into the field of makeup artistry.

After completing her degrees in journalism and mass-media design, Anna began working as a graphic designer. However, her passion for makeup never left her. As soon as she had the opportunity, she delved back into artistry and has never looked back.

Anna was able to work with a mentor in her native Russia who helped guide and inspire her before she took the leap to come work in the States. While still in Russia, she received the Best Fantasy Makeup Award at the Planet of Beauty Trade Show in Moscow. She has now been working professionally as a makeup artist for 8 years, and has achieved a lot in a short period of time. Her work can be seen in magazines, videos, TV projects, photo shoots for several well-known brand names as well as for top modeling agencies.

Thanks to her attention to detail, modern techniques, and the high quality of the products she uses, Anna's clients find themselves raving about her services. She considers herself to not only be a makeup artist, but a makeup stylist as well. She enjoys helping each client enhance her own natural beauty in a customized and well thought out way. Anna also prides herself in being able to strike a balance between classic makeup application and some of today's hottest trends.

Anna is inspired by every face she works on, and is always enthusiastic to learn more about her line of work. She strives for perfection and always aims to create the best results, leading to a very happy list of clients.
