

Nichole Cano

Nichole Cano's journey into makeup artistry began in 2010, during a time when fashion and beauty were evolving into a new era of creativity. Instantly captivated by the artistry, she immersed herself in the industry, developing a passion that has fueled her career for nearly 15 years.

Before fully committing to makeup, Nichole worked in the medical field, pursuing her craft on weekends.

Over time, her dedication turned into a thriving career, leading her to work on print, editorial, and commercial projects. Seeing her work featured on billboards and in publications has been one of her greatest accomplishments, proving how far she has come as an artist.

Nichole's beauty philosophy is simple: Beauty has no boundaries—it's about feeling your best in your own skin. She ensures her clients not only love their look but feel empowered by it. Known for her professionalism, attention to detail, and ability to create a polished version of her clients, she has built lasting relationships through trust and artistry.

Constantly inspired by the ever-changing world of makeup, Nichole stays at the forefront of trends, always seeking new techniques to enhance her craft. Based between Houston and Austin, she is eager to expand her work beyond Texas, bringing her artistry to new markets and clients.
